Reflections ~ Reflexiones:

GOSPEL: LUKE 21: 25-28, 34-36

Today's reading might seem to be a real "downer." Just as we are beginning the new liturgical year, we hear Jesus' reminders to "be vigilant" and "pray." Advent is a time of preparation for Jesus' final coming. Jesus, the just one, who will judge us in the final days of human history, wants us to be able to stand up like true Christians when that time comes.

Decide how you will show that you have heard Jesus' words on this first day of Advent.

- 1.) Jesus does not want us to be afraid at the time of judgment. He wants us to "stand . . . and raise our heads." He wants us to greet him as our "ransomer," for it is he who will lead us from captivity.
- 2.) Advent is a good time to ask: What holds me captive? Why do I need someone to ransom me or rescue me? And what is my attitude toward this Someone who, when he comes, will set me free?

EVANGELIO: LUCAS 21: 25-28, 34-36

La lectura del evangelio de hoy puede ser algo deprimente. Justamente al iniciar el año litúrgico, escuchamos que Jesús nos recuerda estar "atentos" y "orar". El Adviento es un tiempo de preparación para la segunda venida de Jesús, el justo, quien juzgará a todos al final de la historia humana, quiere que seamos capaces de estar de pie como verdaderos cristianos cuando el tiempo llegue.

Decide como enseñaras que tu has oído las palabras de Jesús en este primer día de Adviento.

- 1.) Jesús no quiere que tengamos miedo en la hora de ser juzgados. El quiere que "nos enderecemos y levantemos las cabezas." ¿Por qué nos pide estar alerta?
- 2.) ¿Por qué algunas veces podemos dejar pasar la venida de Jesús?
- 3.) ¿Cómo podemos ser gente de Adviento, despiertos a enfrentar los retos, y atentos a todas las formas en que Jesús llega a nuestras vidas?

Pastor's Message ~ Mensaje del Párroco:

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Advent is a time rich in family traditions. Many of them have been so effectively absorbed into our culture that their religious origins are hidden. Some of us will set candles in our windows tonight. The custom began in Ireland during the so-called "penal" days, extending from 1691 to the "Catholic Emancipation" in 1829 and beyond. There were harsh penalties and fines for not attending the government church. Priests were forced into hiding, but people were resourceful and determined in guarding their faith. At Christmas, Irish families, particularly in the countryside, placed a lighted candle in the cottage window and left the door unlatched, hoping that a priest might come by and celebrate the Christmas Mass for them.

The possibility of the Mass coming into the family home gave rise to other Irish customs at the beginning of Advent. The cottage received a fresh coat of whitewash, the threshold was swept especially clean, and fresh curtains were hung in the windows. The house was scrubbed until it gleamed, including all the pots and pans, and all garments and table linens were laundered. The custom of the Irish window candle was so admired in Catholic Europe that it was widely copied there, and now finds a welcome in households that may not exactly expect a priest to wander in! —Rev. ## TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Es más que justo empezar el tiempo litúrgico de Adviento con la Virgen María. Esta semana celebramos la Solemnidad de la Inmaculada Concepción de María. Esta es una fiesta especial para varios países americanos como Nicaragua, Panamá, Paraguay y los Estados Unidos que tienen como patrona nacional a la Madre de Jesús bajo este título.

Esta creencia tiene siglos de ser discutida por teólogos cristianos como Ambrosio, Agustín, Buenaventura y Tomás de Aquino, pero fue solo con la Constitución Ineffabilis Deus del Papa Pió IX en 1854 que pasó a ser doctrina oficial de la Iglesia. La enseñanza de la Inmaculada Concepción de la Madre de Jesús insiste que María nació y permaneció sin pecado. Según el teólogo franciscano Juan Duns Escoto, María fue salvada del pecado desde el vientre de su madre Ana. De esta manera Jesús pudo salvarla no después de haber pecado como ha hecho con nosotros, sino antes de que ella hubiera pecado.

La Inmaculada Concepción se hizo en vista de la venida de Jesús quien nos puede hacer inmaculados gracias al perdón y la gracia que nos ofrece. —Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Giz, OFM, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Pope Francis has called the entire Church to participate in the extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy, which begins on Dec. 8th, 2015, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, and concludes Nov.22nd 2016, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. In his Bull of Indiction, Misericordiae Vultus, Pope Francis states: "We want to live this Jubilee Year in the light of the Lord's words: Merciful like the Father." He continued, " I present, therefore, this extraordinary Jubilee Year dedicated to living out in our daily lives the mercy which the Father constantly extends to all of us." This is a historic occasion, as it is only the fourth extraordinary Jubilee Year in the history of the Church. Therefore, the Holy Father is underscoring the urgency and importance of the message of mercy for our times. Saint John Paul II, who entrusted the world to God's mercy in 2002, prophetically said, "There is nothing the world needs more today than Divine Mercy.

La Venida del Rieno:

Jeremías lo veía venir —el reinado de Jesús y la restauración de Jerusalén. Pero, ¿había alguien que le escuchara? Alguien escucha ahora? Ser profeta tenía que haber sido muy difícil, pero Jeremías era persistente en su mensaje, porque sabía lo necesario que era escucharlo. Persistente en su mensaje también es Pablo, animando a los tesalonicenses —y a todos nosotros— a vivir de acuerdo al reino que Jeremías anunció. Nos motiva a comportarnos en el camino de santidad para que estemos bien preparados para la llegada del rey. Finalmente, Jesús mismo nos dice que estemos siempre atentos para lograr el agrado de nuestro Dios y Rey. Jeremías podía ver que se acercaba el reinado de Jesús. Al comenzar el tiempo de Adviento, Pablo y Jesús nos enseñan no sólo cómo prepararnos para el Reino, sino cómo vivirlo día a día.
