Reflections ~ Reflexiones:

GOSPEL: LUKE 1: 39-45

Many artists have painted this moving scene described by Luke in today's gospel. Mary has made a difficult journey through the hill country to be with her relative Elizabeth, who is several months pregnant. The young woman, bearing in her body the Savior, and the older woman, carrying John the Baptist, embrace each other with tears and laughter. Elizabeth recognizes Mary's true identity as "the mother of my Lord." She calls Mary "blessed" three times. Mary is blessed because she trusted that the Lord's words to her would come true.

1.) Mary went to help Elizabeth. Mary then had a happy and joyful experience and was blessed by her cousin. Think of a time when you helped someone. How were you blessed?

2.) Did you recognize some of the words in this reading as part of the Hail Mary?

Pray together now:

Leader: Blessed Mary, help us to be more willing to trust the Lord's words to us.

All: Hail Mary, full of grace . . .

EVANGELIO: LUCAS 1: 38-45

Muchos artistas han pintado esta conmovedora escena descrita en el Evangelio de Lucas hoy. María ha hecho un viaje difícil a través de montañas para ir a ver a su prima Isabel, quien estaba embarazada. La joven mujer, llevando al Salvador en su vientre, y la anciana, embarazada de Juan el Bautista, se abrazan llorando de alegría. Isabel reconoce la verdadera identidad de María como "la madre de mi Señor". Ella llama a María "bendita" tres veces. María es bendita porque ella confió en que las palabras del Señor para ella se harían realidad.

1.) María fue a visitar a Isabel. María tiene una experiencia feliz y fue bendecida por su prima. Piensa en un momento en que ayudaste a alguien. ¿Cómo fuiste bendecido?

2.) ¿Reconoces algunas de las palabras de la lectura como parte del Ave María?

Récenlas juntos ahora:

Líder: Santa María, ayúdanos a estar más dispuestos a confiar en las palabras del Señor a nosotros.

Todos: Dios te salve, María, llena eres de gracia ...

Pastor's Message ~ Mensaje del Párroco:

JOY TO THE WORLD

When the prairies of this country were opened up to settlers in the nineteenth century, families who went West and staked a claim on the land lived hard, isolated lives miles away from any neighbors. The husbands did backbreaking farm work to support their families and the wives struggled with child-rearing, cleaning, and cooking in very primitive conditions. When families met the women would fall about each other's necks, embracing tearfully at the joy of being together. This is but an echo of today's Gospel. Luke tells of two women, Mary and Elizabeth, united again after time apart. Each is pregnant and will bear a child who will change the world. What is expressed between them is amazing, overflowing, unconcealed joy. Elizabeth is a woman who has awaited pregnancy for years, and Mary is the one chosen to bear the Messiah. They sense the future unfolding before them, brought about by the hand of God. On this last Sunday of Advent, Mary and Elizabeth remind us that Christmas is not simply about the birth of a child in an obscure corner of the world. It is about recognizing light—the light of Christ, the Anointed One, breaking into the world's darkness and into our hearts.

REGOCÍJESE EL MUNDO

Quando las praderas de este país se abrieron para los colonos en el siglo diecinueve, las familias que se aseguraron un puesto en la región occidental llevaron una vida difícil y aislada, a kilómetros de distancia de algún vecino. Los esposos trabajaban arduamente en los cultivos de la tierra para mantener a sus familias mientras que las esposas luchaban con la crianza de los hijos, la limpieza y la cocina de condiciones primitivas. Cuando las familias se encontraban las mujeres se abrazaban al cuello con lágrimas en sus ojos por el gozo de verse juntas. Esto es sólo un eco del evangelio de hoy. Lucas nos cuenta acerca de dos mujeres, María e Isabel, reunidas de nuevo después de un tiempo de separación. Las dos están encinta y cada una dará a luz un hijo que cambiará el mundo. Lo que ellas expresan mutuamente es un gozo asombroso, desbordante y al descubierto. Isabel ha deseado concebir por muchos años y María es la mujer escogida para dar a luz al Mesías. Las dos presienten el futuro que Dios va desplegando ante sus ojos. En este último domingo de Adviento, la historia de María e Isabel nos recuerda que la Navidad no se trata simplemente del nacimiento de un niño en un rincón oscuro del mundo. Se trata más bien de reconocer la luz—la luz de Cristo, el Ungido, que irrumpe en la oscuridad del mundo y viene a nuestro corazón.

Retirement Fund For Religious:

The second collection for Sunday, December 27th will be for the Retirement Fund for Religious. Over 35,000 senior sisters, brothers, and religious order priests have offered their lives in service to others. Many have worked for years for small stipends, leaving their communities without adequate savings for retirement and eldercare. Your gift to the Retirement Fund for Religious provides funding for prescription medications, nursing care, and more. Thank you for your generous gift.

Church Cleaning & Decorating:

We will be cleaning and decorating the church on Thursday, December 24th from 10:00am to 2:00pm. We need your help. If you are able, please come for an hour or more. Thank you for your time and talent.

A New Order:

"O, Little Town of Bethlehem." A Philadelphia clergyman named Phillips Brooks penned these popular words back in the mid-1800s, but the prophet Micah could have used them first. Micah knew that from small packages great treasures come. In today's first reading, he knew that from tiny Bethlehem would come the Lord.

The writer in Hebrews explains that Christ came to us to do the will of God by establishing a new order and by becoming our perfect sacrifice. And Luke tells us that Elizabeth and John, the infant in her womb, understand that great and wondrous things are at hand with the coming of the Lord.

This is the Fourth Sunday of Advent. Soon we celebrate anew the fruit of Mary's womb. As we are told in Hebrews, Jesus' new order is being established even today. And as Micah proclaims, his greatness is reaching even now to the ends of the Important Message from Archbishop Salvatore J. Cordileone Prayer to Stop Assisted Suicide

STOP Assisted Suicide in CA before it's too late! Earlier this year, through a Special Session, the CA legislature passed into law assisted suicide, allowing doctors to prescribe overdoses of medication to terminally-ill patients. Join a coalition of physicians, nurses, disability-rights organizations, and people of all faiths to stand-up for the lives of our elderly and dying and oppose assisted suicide. On Sundays, throughout the rest of this year, referendum petitions will be available for signatures outside of Masses. Signers must be registered to vote and can only sign once.

Why Oppose Assisted Suicide?

- Sends the Wrong Message: Legalizing suicide for the terminally ill, while discouraging it for the rest of the population, teaches that the lives of the ill and disabled do not matter to our society.
- Will Worsen Patient Care: Patients in other states where assisted suicide has become law are being denied treatment prescribed by their doctors and instead offered drugs for assisted suicide.

Will Increase Non-Terminal Suicide Rates: Suicides skyrocket when assisted suicide is legalized. Oregon's suicide rate for non-terminal people increased 49% after assisted suicide became legal.

The Filipino consultative board cordially invites anyone who is willing to host ONE

Colaborando con este fondo ayudará con los costos de prescripciones, enfermeras y más. Por favor seamos generosos. Durante este Año de la Misericordia que comenzó el pasado 8 de diciembre, el Pa-

Sacramento de la Reconciliación:

dre Cameron estará escuchando confesiones todos los lunes y martes de 5:30 a 6:30 PM durante la temporada de Adviento. El continuará solo los lunes por la noche después de la Navidad. Aprovechen la oportunidad para confesarse.

UN ORDEN NUEVO:

"Oh, pequeña aldea de Belén"; un clérigo de Filadelfia llamado Phillips Brooks escribió este popular villancico a mediados de los 1800, pero el profeta Miqueas hubiera podido hacerlo primero. Miqueas sabía que el tesoro grande viene en estuche pequeño. En la primera lectura de hoy, él sabía que del pueblito de Belén vendría el Señor. El escritor de la carta a los hebreos explica que Cristo vino a nosotros para hacer la voluntad de Dios de establecer un nuevo orden y ser un sacrificio perfecto. Y Lucas nos dice que Isabel y Juan, el pequeño en sus entrañas, comprenden que grandes maravillas han llegado con la venida del Señor.

Este es el Cuarto Domingo de Adviento. Mañana celebramos de nuevo el fruto de tu vientre, María. Como se nos dice en Hebreos, el nuevo orden de Jesús se está creando hoy mismo. Y como proclama Miqueas, su grandeza llega ahora mismo hasta los confines de la tierra.

Feliz Navidad

Queridos amigos y feligreses:

Es durante esta temporada cuando Dios nos hace recordar del gran amor que Él nos tiene. Nos demuestra cuanta misericordia nos tiene cuando escribe en Juan 3:16: "Tanto amó Dios al mundo que entregó a su Hijo Único, para que todo el que crea en Él no se pierda sino que tenga vida eterna," Y en este Año del Jubileo de la Misericordia, Lucas escribe, "Sean compasivos y misericordiosos como es el Padre de ustedes". Por ello, tomemos un tiempo para meditar calladamente y hacernos la pregunta: "¿Cómo podemos también ser misericordiosos con nuestra familia, nuestros amigos, el mundo y con nosotros mismos?"

¿Y que es Misericordia? Es una palabra que incluye benevolencia, perdón y bondad dentro del contexto legal, ético, social y religioso. Todos podemos ser misericordiosos. Aprovechemos la Navidad para "volver a nacer" con corazón, ojos, pensamientos y espíritu de misericordia. Vivamos siendo compasivos, así como se nos pide en Mateo 5:7: "Felices los compasivos porque obtendrán misericordia". Espero que, juntos con su familia participen en nuestras festividades y en nuestras misas; y que reine la paz en sus hogares.

¡Feliz Navidad!

Merry Christmas

December 2015

Dear Friends and Parishioners of Epiphany:

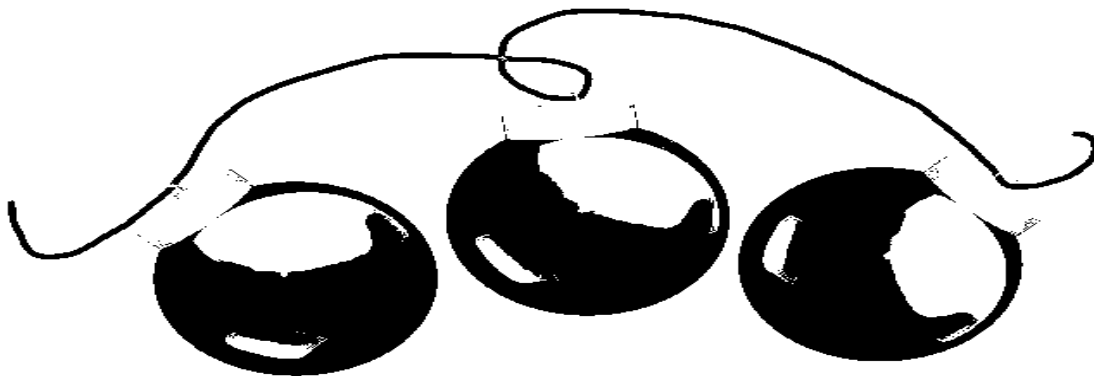

Peace be with you and in your homes! Once again it is that time of year where God reminds us of the immense love He has for us. John 3:16 says: "For God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life."

What an act of mercy! The scriptural focus for the jubilee year is Christ's command from Luke 6:36 which reads: "Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful." In this Jubilee Year of Mercy, let us take time in silence and look within ourselves and ask: "How too can we be merciful—to our family, our friends, our world, and ourselves?"

Mercy is a broad term that refers to benevolence, forgiveness, and kindness in a variety of ethical, religious, social, and legal contexts. We can all be merciful. This Christmas we will celebrate the birth of Christ. Let us see this Christmas as an opportunity to be reborn—reborn with a heart of mercy, eyes of mercy, thoughts of mercy, a spirit of mercy, so that we can act and live mercifully! Matthew 5:7 says: "Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy!" My wish this Christmas is that you and your family will join our other parish families and participate in our festivities and masses.

Merry Christmas!
