Reflections ~ Reflexiones:

GOSPEL: LUKE 4: 4; 21-30

In the first reading, we read that the Lord chose Jeremiah to be his prophet. However, the people did not listen to Jeremiah. However, Jeremiah never gave up, because he knew the Lord was with him. In this reading from the Gospel, the people do not listen to Jesus. They did not really believe he was the Messiah, because they had known him all their lives. To them, Jesus was "Joseph's son" and nothing more. But Jesus never gave up, either. Jesus knew that his Father was with him always.

1.) Have you ever felt like "giving up"? How can you remember to be like Jeremiah and Jesus? What do you know that will help you not to give up?

EVANGELIO: LUCAS 4: 4; 21-30

En la primer lectura escuchamos que el Señor escogió a Jeremías para ser un profeta. Sin embargo, el pueblo no escuchó a Jeremías. Pero Jeremías nunca se dio por vencido, porque él sabía que el Señor estaba con él. En esta lectura del evangelio el pueblo no está escuchando a Jesús. No creen que él es el Mesías, porque no lo conocen. Para ellos, Jesús no era nada más que "el hijo de José". Pero Jesús nunca se dio por vencido. Jesús sabía que su Padre estaba siempre con él.

1.) ¿Alguna vez has querido dejarlo todo? ¿Qué sabes que te puede ayudar a no dejarlo todo?

Pastor's Message ~ Mensaje del Párroco:

THE "M" WORD

Our parish needs money to help those hurting in body, mind, and spirit; to pay clergy and staff; to educate the young; and to pay the bills for utilities and maintenance. No money, no ministry. Where does the money come from? There are no presses printing money at the diocese; no armored truck from the Vatican. The money to do Christ's work comes from us—his disciples. Money in itself is neither good nor bad, only how we use it, or how it uses us. Turn on the TV any day to find a televangelist saying, "Give a contribution, and God will shower blessings on you." The scriptural message of stewardship is the absolute opposite. God gives first—life, health, shelter, food, and more. We do not achieve these by our efforts alone, so making a financial offering proportionate to our blessings in the parish offertory expresses gratitude for what we have already received. Never made a regular contribution to the parish offertory? Begin now. Made a small commitment before? Increase it a little. If God has blessed you greatly, give greatly in return. Living Stewardship Now

EL DINERO

Nuestra parroquia necesita dinero para ayudar a aquellas personas que sufren de cuerpo, mente y espíritu; para pagarle al clero y al personal, educar a los jóvenes y pagar los gastos de servicios públicos y de mantenimiento. Sin dinero no hay ministerio. ¿De dónde viene el dinero? No hay impresoras de dinero en la diócesis ni camiones blindados vienen desde el Vaticano para hacer una entrega de dinero. El dinero para hacer la obra de Cristo viene de nosotros—sus discípulos. El dinero de por sí no es bueno ni malo; todo depende de cómo lo usemos o de como nos use a nosotros. Enciende el televisor cualquier día y encontrarás a un televangelista diciendo: "Haz una contribución financiera y Dios te bendecirá abundantemente". El mensaje bíblico de la corresponsabilidad cristiana es absolutamente lo opuesto. Dios es quien da primero—la vida, la salud, un techo, el alimento y más. No logramos esto sólo por nuestros propios esfuerzos; por eso hacer una ofrenda financiera en el ofertorio de la parroquia, proporciona nuestras bendiciones, expresa gratitud por lo que ya hemos recibido. ¿Nunca antes has hecho una contribución regular en el ofertorio de la parroquia? Comienza ahora. ¿Ya has hecho un compromiso pequeño? Auméntalo un poco. Si Dios te ha bendecido con mucho, mucho debes devolver. Copyright © 2009, World Library Publications. All rights reserved.

Regulations on Abstaining and Fasting During Lent:

As in the past, the following regulations are in place for abstaining and fasting during Lent. ABSTINENCE: Everyone 14 years of age and older is bound to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, the Fridays of Lent and Good Friday. FAST: Everyone 18 years of age and older but under the age of 60 is also bound to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. On these two days, the law of fast allows only one full meal a day, but does not prohibit taking some food during the day, so long as this does not constitute another full meal. Drinking liquids during the day is permitted. When health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige. In doubt concerning fast or abstinence, a priest assigned to pastoral ministry or confessor should be consulted. In the spirit of penance, the faithful should not lightly excuse themselves from this obligation.
