Reflections ~ Reflexiones:

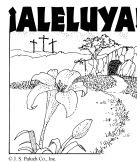

GOSPEL: JOHN 20: 1-9

Alleluia! Imagine how you would have felt if you had been Mary Magdalene or Peter or John on that first Easter morning. What thoughts and emotions would the sight of that empty tomb have aroused in you? At first, Mary Magdalene thought that Jesus' enemies had stolen his body. Heartbroken, she ran to tell Peter and John. They raced to the tomb and found that the burial wrappings, which had encased Jesus' body, were cast aside. Seeing this, they believed.

- 1.) Does your belief in the resurrection affect your everyday life? How you treat others?
- 2.) Do our lives give evidence of the joy and peace and hope of Easter?
- 3.) An early father of the Church wrote, "A Christian should be an alleluia from head to toe!" How can you live a life of praise?

EVANGELIO: JUAN 20: 1-9

¡Aleluya! Imagina como te hubieras sentido si hubieras conocido a María Magdalena, a Pedro, o a Juan en la mañana de Resurrección. ¿Qué ideas y emociones despertarían en ti la tumba vacía? Primero María Magdalena pensó que los enemigos de Jesús habían robado su cuerpo. Apenada corre hacia Pedro y Juan. Ellos corren a la tumba y encuentran la ropa en que estaba envuelto el cuerpo de Jesús en el suelo. Al ver eso creyeron.

- 1.) ¿Cómo tu fe en el Señor resucitado te libera para ser una mejor persona?
- 2.) ¿Cómo has "visto y creído en esta Pascua"?

Pastor's Message ~ Mensaje del Párroco:

TRANSFORMATION

The high point of our Christian faith and the most holy day in the Church year is celebrated today. The glorified, risen Jesus must have looked different in some ways, as his followers fail to recognize him at first, even the ones who know him best, and Jesus has to assure them that he is not a ghost. He invites Thomas to touch his wounds, he eats breakfast with Peter and his companions on the lake shore, and, at Emmaus, two disciples "see" him as he takes bread, blesses and breaks it, and gives it to them. We receive this same Jesus at every Eucharist. Dorothy Day found that we know the Lord and each other in the breaking of the bread, and this puts an end to our loneliness. She became one of the greatest champions of the poor, forsaken, hungry, and homeless. True faith, like Dorothy Day's, transforms us. Some have a sudden conversion, while for others it is a slower process, unfolding over time. If we come to know the truth of Easter it will overflow from our own life into those around us. LIVING STEWARDSHIP NOW

We can only put our skills and time to work for God if we are nourished by Jesus himself, who will sustain us in our efforts. Decide to receive the Eucharist on another day of the week in addition to Sundays. Copyright © 2009, World Library Publications. All rights reserved.

TRANSFORMACIÓN

El punto culminante de nuestra fe cristiana y la fiesta más importante de todo el año de la Iglesia se celebra hoy. Jesús glorioso y resucitado tiene que haber lucido diferente de alguna manera, pues sus discípulos no pudieron reconocerlo enseguida, ni siquiera aquellos que lo conocían mejor, a quienes Jesús tuvo que asegurarles que no era un fantasma. Invita a Tomás a que toque sus llagas, toma el desayuno con Pedro y sus compañeros junto al lago y en Emaús dos discípulos lo "ven" cuando toma el pan, lo bendice, lo parte y se los entrega. Nosotros recibimos a este mismo Jesús en cada Eucaristía. Dorothy Day se dio cuenta que conocemos a Dios y a los demás al partir el pan y que este hecho acaba con nuestra soledad. Day se convirtió en una de las más grandes campeonas en favor de los pobres, los abandonados, los hambrientos y los vagabundos. La verdadera fe, como la de Dorothy Day, nos transforma. Algunos experimentan una conversión súbita, mientras que para otros es un proceso más lento que se va desarrollando en el transcurso del tiempo. Si llegamos a conocer la verdad de la Pascua, ella emanará y se desbordará de nuestra propia vida llegando a todos los que nos rodean. Copyright © 2009, World Library Publications. All rights reserved.

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD VÍVIDA AHORA

Podemos poner nuestras habilidades y nuestro tiempo para la obra de Dios sólo cuando nos dejamos alimentar por el mismo Jesús. Él es quien sustenta nuestros esfuerzos. Haz la decisión de recibir la Eucaristía otro día, además del domingo. Copyright © 2009, World Library Publications. All rights reserved.

Next Week: Parish School

Collection envelopes can be found at the entrances of the church. Thank you!!

Treasures From Our Tradition:

Fifty years or so ago, it was popular to teach that every Sunday is a "Little Easter." Today, after several decades of intense liturgical reform, it is more proper to think of today as a "Big Sunday." On every Sunday of the year, the Church is obliged to assemble, keeping the day holy. In most places, we hardly attain the goal of gathering all who are in Christ by baptism. Look around today and see what a Big Sunday looks like!

Our tradition speaks of remembering, anamnesis, as the antidote to "amnesia," the tragic forgetting of who God is and who we are as God's most beloved creation. On this Easter day, we are at our very best. We remember who God is, and we remember who we are in God's eyes: beloved sons and daughters, reborn to eternal life in baptismal waters. We rekindle our candles and reclaim our baptismal promises. As a "Big Sunday," today also reflects the character of festivity and leisure that should mark every Lord's Day. We wear "Sunday best" today, and we may take some time, especially in the northern states, to stroll through a budding garden. It is truly a "Big Sunday," and how different our lives would be if we took its values and traditions forward into all the Sundays of our lives. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Divine Mercy Sunday:

On Sunday, April 3, 2016, the Church of the Epiphany will celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday in conjunction with the whole world. There will be exposition of the Blessed Sacrament at 4:30pm and the Chaplet will be recited at 4:50pm. The first 4 decades will be recited and the last decade will be sung with reflections before every decade.

DRAWN INTO THE STORY:

"We are witnesses!" The scripture readings for Easter Sunday concentrate on details reported by eyewitnesses. Listen carefully and you will be drawn into the stories yourself. Peter reports the good works Jesus did, his death on the cross, and his resurrection. The passage from John's Gospel has us running to the empty tomb with Peter and John and peering inside to see the cloths used to cover Jesus' body. Psalm 118 sums up our response: "It is wonderful in our eyes!"

What resurrection details do we see in our lives today? How have we died to our old lives and been raised up again with Jesus? Let us pay attention to the new life around us. It is wonderful in our eyes.

Training For New Ministers For San Francisco Juvenile Justice Center:

Comunidad San Dimas is a Christian Catholic restorative justice and ecumenical ministry service to the San Francisco Juvenile Justice Center. Ministers visit incarcerated youth from 12-18 years of age. New ministers are needed and invited. A two-day training session will be provided May 21 and 28 at St. Brendan Church in San Francisco. Ministry requirements: Pre-training interview; completion of training; minimum age 18, attend mandatory monthly meetings; have internet access. Bilingual (English/Spanish) is preferable but not required. Contact Julio Escobar at 415-244-5594 for more information or to arrange pre-training interview.

Reminder Policy for Prayers for the Sick:

Due to the large number of requests that we receive for this list, we need to inform you that we will print the name of your loved one for 4 weeks only. We understand that some may be sick longer. If this is your case, please call the office before the 4th week and request that his/her name be printed again. Thank you for understanding the need for this change.

Retrouvaille:

Retrouvaille is a French word meaning rediscovery. The program offers tools needed to rediscover a loving marriage relationship. Thousands of couples headed for cold, unloving relationships or divorce have successfully overcome their marriage problems by attending the program. The next offering in San Francisco is April 15-17. Please visit Retrouvaille.org for much more information and to register.

Easter Sunday March 27, 2016

To him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name.

Blood Drive :

Saint Paul's Church is having their annual Blood Drive on Saturday, April 10 from 8am-12pm. To schedule your life-saving appointment, please register online at www.BloodHeros.com select "Donate Blood" Sponsor Code: Saint-PaulSF. Or contact Jill Alcantar at 415-586-8911 if you have any questions. Each donor receives a FREE sandwich and drink from ROXIE Foods on San Jose Ave. Appointments encouraged, but walk-ins are welcome!

Catholic Relief Services:

This Sunday's second collection is for Catholic Relief Services. The Catholic Relief Services Collection funds six Catholic agencies that work to serve our suffering brothers and sisters around the world. Through humanitarian aid, resettling displaced individuals and families, and providing legal and advocacy services for migrants, the Catholic Relief Services Collection allows us to see every encounter with a person who is suffering as an opportunity to help Jesus in Disguise.

Epiphany School News:

School of the Epiphany is now accepting applications for grades K-8th for the 2016-2017 school year. Come and Visit! School tours are available. Contact the school office at (415) 337-4030 for more information. You can also visit our website at: www.SFepiphany.org

Non-Discrimination Policy:

The School of the Epiphany, mindful of our mission to be witnesses to the love of Christ for all, admits students of any race, color, and national and/or ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs and activities generally accorded to or made available to students at the School of the Epiphany. The School of the Epiphany does not unlawfully discriminate on the basis of race, color, and national and/or ethnic origin, age, sex, or disability in the administration of educational policies, admission policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other school administered programs.

CAPTURADO POR LA HISTORIA

"¡Somos testigos!" Las lecturas bíblicas del Domingo de Pascua se centran en detalles reportados por testigos oculares. Escucha detenidamente y sentirás que la historia te captura. Pedro reporta las buenas obras hechas por Jesús, su muerte en la cruz, y su Resurrección. El pasaje del Evangelio de san Juan nos hace correr a la tumba vacía con Pedro y Juan, y dar una mirada adentro para ver el lienzo usado para cubrir el cuerpo de Jesús. El Salmo 118 resume nuestra respuesta: "¡Es un milagro patente!"

¿Qué detalles de resurrección vemos hoy en nuestra vida? ¿Cómo hemos muerto a la vida vieja y resucitado de nuevo con Jesús? Tengamos bien en cuenta la nueva vida que nos rodea. Es un milagro patente.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA: FE

Hace casi dos mil años María Magdalena fue muy de mañana al sepulcro de Jesús. Fue a rezar como muchos hacemos ante la tumba de un ser amado. Esa mañana ella se convertiría en apóstol de los apóstoles, primera testigo de Jesús resucitado de entre los muertos. Siglos después el testimonio de la Magdalena sigue siendo importante en la historia cristiana. Durante estos días en Anguiano, España, hombres y jóvenes de las viejas familias de la zona bailan y caminan con una pequeña imagen de la Magdalena. Se visten con camisas y faldones largos de muchos colores, mostrando la belleza de la diversidad hispana. Ellos bailan en honor de esa santa mujer de Magdala y lo hacen sobre andas de casi un metro de altura. Ellos toman la imagen desde la iglesia de su pueblo en las montañas en el norte del país y la llevan bailando por las calles empedradas bajando al santuario que han preparado para ella. Todo el pueblo reza y festeja en honor de la santa que fue buscando un difunto y se encontró con el Señor de la vida eterna. —Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Glz, OFM, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

CHURCH OF THE EPIPHANY

Dear Parishioners & Friends of Epiphany,

We all cherish our special memories of important people and events in our lives. We think back to birthdays, anniversaries and other special occasions in our lives. They lie at the very heart of our relationships with loved ones and friends.

We also have special memories of Holy Week and Easter. Every year during Holy Week we relive the important moments in the last days of Jesus on earth. These memories remind us of His love for us. Jesus expressed that love through the gifts of the Eucharist, the Priesthood and finally the gift of His life for us. The Good News of Easter is that Jesus' resurrection offers us the promise of our own resurrection, of that time when we will live with Him in everlasting happiness and unending peace.

Just as spring returns to assure us that we have survived the onslaughts of another winter, Easter reminds us that we too have been created to be resurrected. The Good News is that we are destined to share a new life, an eternal life with Jesus, a life free of pain, suffering and death! I earnestly invite you to join with your friends at Epiphany as we celebrate these great moments in our lives. My prayer is that you enjoy all happiness of this Easter. May the peace of the Risen Lord Jesus fill your hearts and homes.

HAPPY EASTER!
