Reflections ~ Reflexiones:

GOSPEL: LUKE 12: 13-21

As so often happens, Jesus tells a parable because someone has asked him a question. A man wants him to settle a squabble about an inheritance, but Jesus will have no part of it. Concern about money prevents people from focusing on the reign of God. The parable of the rich farmer shows how foolish it is to keep piling up possessions. Right when the greedy man is gorging himself on food and drink, he dies. Death prevents any chance of reform.

1.) In our society, we must all spend some time making money. How much time? How much of our thought and energy goes into this? How do we keep ourselves from spending too much time and energy on making money? Does our need to make money take too much time away from family and friends?

EVANGELIO: LUCAS 12: 13-21

Como sucedía con frecuencia, Jesús contaba una parábola porque alguien le hacía una pregunta. Un hombre quería que Jesús zanjara una disputa sobre una herencia, pero Jesús no participó de eso. Preocupación por el dinero impide a la gente centrarse en el reino de Dios. La parábola del rico granjero muestra lo tonto que es almacenar posesiones. Justo cuando el avaro hombre tenía mucha comida y que beber, muere. La muerte le impide la oportunidad de reformarse.

1.) En nuestra sociedad debemos ganar algo de dinero. ¿Cuánto tiempo debemos invertir en ello? ¿Cuánta de nuestra energía e ideas deben dedicarse a ello? ¿Cómo evitamos gastar mucho tiempo y energía haciendo dinero? ¿Nuestra necesidad de hacer dinero nos roba tiempo para estar con nuestra familia y amigos? Por supuesto que no trabajamos sólo por dinero. Cada trabajo es una oportunidad de amar a Dios y a los demás. ¿Cómo amas a Dios y a los demás en tu trabajo? En tu trabajo como estudiante, ¿cómo amas a Dios y a los demás en la escuela?

Pastor's Message ~ Mensaje del Párroco:

THE PIZZA GUY

Thomas Monaghan is a pizza mogul. Raised in an orphanage, he thought that wealth was justifiable and necessary. He realized that he craved riches to impress—a form of pride. So he simplified everything—no private jet, fancy cars, or huge mansion—and now experiences joy in giving. He said recently that people who think he's sacrificing don't understand. The money is not his money. Yes, he worked hard, but where did he get the enthusiasm, energy, willpower, and persistence to work hard? From God. What Monaghan has produced already belongs to God, so he's only sharing God's bounty. When people ask what motivates him, he thinks it is blindingly obvious: he was raised to believe that the true value of life is to get to heaven while dragging along as many people with him as possible! It's flattering when people say that he's a devout Catholic, but he feels he is too much of a struggling sinner to deserve such praise. Copyright © 2009, World Library Publications. Living Stewardship Now

Wealthy or not, there are many ways to share God's blessings:

Give away gently-used clothes and household items to local charities. Buy locally and support businesses in your neighborhood. Resist advertising; buy only as much as you need. Spend time with family and friends. Share non-perishable food with local food banks. Support your parish and good causes with your time and skills. Turn off the TV and try biking, hiking, fishing, reading, or just take a walk. Be good to the earth: Reduce waste, recycle, plant a garden. EL SEÑOR DE LA PIZZA

Thomas Monaghan es un magnate de pizzerías. Creció en un orfanato y pensaba que la riqueza era justificable y necesaria. Se dio cuenta de que ansiaba las riquezas para impresionar—una forma de orgullo. Pero lo simplificó todo—no avión privado, no coches de lujo, ni mansión enorme—y ahora su regocijo está en dar. Dijo recientemente que aquellos que piensan que él se sacrifica, no entienden. El dinero no es su dinero. Sí, ha trabajado duro pero, ¿dónde consiguió el entusiasmo, la energía, la voluntad y la perseverancia para trabajar duro? Dios se lo dio todo. Lo que Monaghan ha producido le pertenece a Dios de antemano, él sólo comparte la munificencia de Dios. La gente le pregunta qué es lo que lo motiva y él piensa que eso es algo que debe saltar a la vista, pues el verdadero valor de la vida es llegar al cielo trayendo consigo a tantos como se pueda! Con esa creencia lo criaron a él. Aunque se siente muy halagado cuando la gente dice que él es un católico muy devoto, dice que es demasiado pecador para merecer tal elogio. La Corresponsabilidad Vivida Ahora

Rico o no, hay muchas maneras de compartir las bendiciones de Dios:

Dona la ropa que esté poco usada y artículos domésticos a algún lugar benéfico. Compra en tu comunidad y apoya a los negocios de tu localidad. Muéstrate resistente a los anuncios; compra sólo lo necesario. Pasa tiempo con familiares y amigos. Comparte con algún banco de alimento local alimentos que no se echen a perder. Apoya los esfuerzos de tu parroquia y las causas buenas con tu tiempo y habilidades. Apaga el televisor y emplea ese tiempo para montar en bicicleta, practicar el excursionismo, la pesca, una buena lectura o simplemente caminar y dar un paseo por ahí. Sé bueno con el planeta tierra: Disminuye los residuos, recicla, siembra un jardín. For reservations and/or information, please contact Terry Adion (415-584-5496) or Jess Ty (415-587-0651).

HITTING IT BIG:

It seems to be commonly accepted nowadays that everyone wants to win the lottery, hit the slots big at the casino, or be a millionaire. This attitude is akin to what the first hearers of the parable of the successful farmer would have thought: Why, of course he'd want to find a way to preserve his good fortune for the future, to secure for himself a life of leisure, eating, drinking, and merriment. It's exactly the kind of life that the right ticket, hand of cards, or quiz show answer might bring us today. Being surrounded by this "common wisdom" makes the words of Qoheleth, the psalmist, Paul, and Jesus all that much harder to hear today. Perhaps good fortune will be ours, perhaps it will not be. But if we make that fortune or the quest for it the heart, the very center, of our lives, then we will live to regret it. We will not achieve the future security we pursue, and we will lose the present moment in the chase. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Community Wedding:

Our Annual Community Wedding will be on November 12th, at 12:00pm. This is open to couples who are "free to marry" in the church, living together for 3 or more years and who cannot afford a "church wedding." Anyone interested is asked to contact one of the parish priests.

El Premio Mayor:

Parece cosa comúnmente aceptada hoy día que todo el mundo quiere ganar-se la lotería, ganar en el casino o ser millonario. Esta actitud es similar a la de los primeros oyentes de la parábola del agricultor próspero que pensarían: Por supuesto. Él tenía que buscar la manera de preservar su buena fortuna para el futuro, para asegurarse una vida muelle, comiendo, bebiendo y gozando. Es exactamente la clase de vida que nos brindaría hoy el billete premiado, una buena mano de cartas o la respuesta correcta en el programa de TV. Estar rodeados por este "sentido común" hace mucho más difícil escuchar hoy las palabras de Cohélet, del salmista, de Pedro y de Jesús. Quizás nos sonría la buena fortuna, quizás no. Pero si hacemos que esa fortuna o su búsqueda sea el corazón, el centro mismo de nuestra vida, viviremos para lamentarlo. No adquiriremos la seguridad futura que perseguimos y perderemos el momento presente por estar persiguiéndola. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Today's Reading:

First Reading — Do not spend your life toiling for material gain (Ecclesiastes 1:2; 2:21-23).
Psalm — If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts (Psalm 90).
Second Reading — Christ has raised you to new life, so seek now what is above (Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11).
Gospel — Be on guard against all greed, for your life does not consist of earthly possessions, but of the riches of the reign of God (Luke 12:13-21).
