Reflections ~ Reflexiones:

GOSPEL: LUKE 16: 1-13 OR LUKE 16: 10-13

Jesus warns his followers today against allowing money to become their master. They must use money in an intelligent and responsible way. But they must be ever alert to the ways in which concerns about money can take over their lives. Jesus advises them to prove themselves trustworthy in dealing with material wealth. Then they will be trustworthy in spiritual matters as well.

1.) You are probably learning to handle money. What do you do with the money you are given? Do you save some of it? Do you put some into the collection basket at church?

2.) How do you share your money with those who have less? How do you use your money to care for yourself? How do you use your money to care for others?

EVANGELIO: LUCAS 16: 1-13 O LUCAS 16: 10-13

En el evangelio de hoy Jesús aconseja a sus seguidores a no convertir el dinero en su señor. Deben usar el dinero de forma inteligente y responsable. Deben estar siempre alerta las formas en que el dinero se apodera de sus vidas. Jesús los aconseja probarse a sí mismos cuando se trate de riquezas. Entonces se les tendrá confianza en las cosas espirituales.

1.) Probablemente estés aprendiendo a manejar dinero, ¿qué haces con el dinero que se te da? ¿Ahorras una parte? ¿Das algo a la Iglesia? ¿Cómo compartes tu dinero con los más necesitados?

Pastor's Message ~ Mensaje del Párroco:

BE QUICK ABOUT IT

Jesus tells the story of a rich man's manager, about to be dismissed for careless inefficiency. This steward acts promptly to ingratiate himself with his master's debtors so that they will owe him favors when he is unemployed. The master compliments him, knowing that the new promissory notes reflect the actual debts minus what the steward added for himself. The master, too, is dishonest because he permitted the graft. Jesus asks us—"the children of light" (Luke 16:8)—to be as sharp-witted and quick to act as these dishonest men with what God entrusts to us, whether property, abilities, money, health, or life itself. Jesus praises the steward's method, not his purpose, and points out that the real enemy of discipleship is laziness—the constant postponing of full commitment to the life of faith and what that calls us to be and do. Imagine if we all began right now to use the blessings of God to build the kingdom!

ACTÚA CON DILIGENCIA

Jesús nos relata la historia de un administrador rico que estaba a punto de ser despedido por su descuido e ineficiencia. Este administrador actúa con diligencia para congraciarse con los deudores de su amo y que éstos le deban favores cuando él esté desempleado. El amo lo halaga, pues sabe que los nuevos pagarés reflejan la deuda real sin la cantidad con la cual se quedaba el administrador. También el amo es deshonesto, ya que permitía la corrupción. A nosotros que pertenecemos a la luz (Lucas 16:8), Jesús nos pide que seamos ingeniosos y diligentes—como estos hombres deshonestos—para con lo que Dios nos ha confiado, ya sean propiedades, habilidades, dinero salud o la vida misma. Jesús elogia el método del administrador, no su propósito, y señala que el verdadero enemigo del discipulado es la pereza, o sea, el estar constantemente posponiendo el compromiso en el trabajo que nos exige la fe. ¡Imagínate qué pasaría si todos nosotros ahora mismo empezáramos a usar las bendiciones que Dios nos ha dado para la construcción de su reino! As you may know, the retirement years can be difficult for our priests. No longer supported by their parish communities, they rely on minimal Social Security benefits and their pension from the Priest Retirement Fund for basic needs, such as food, housing and transportation. Please show your gratitude to those priests who have cared for and ministered to you by prayerfully reflecting on how you can best help support our priests in retirement with a gift to the Priests Retirement fund special.

Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend:

Marriage Encounter Weekends are a special time for a married couple away from all distractions: work, kids, bills, and other pressures and concerns. They take place at a local hotel or facility where presentations are given in the conference room, and couples usually stay at the hotel/facility for the entire weekend (some weekends are commuter-based). The next local Weekend will take place November 11-13 in Menlo Park. During the weekend, a series of presentations are made by the Presenting Team, consisting of three married couples and a priest. Each presentation builds on the last as participants examine their behaviors and attitudes, as well as their relationship with their spouse and with God. Communication tools are taught to help couples interact in healthy, constructive ways in areas that can deepen their intimacy and connectedness. All sharing between spouses is private; this is not a weekend to solve problems. The weekend will help couples in good marriages communicate even better. Find more information and registration forms at the website above. The archdiocesan Office of Marriage & Family Life supports marriage and married couples with this and many other resources. Learn more at sfarch.org/marriage, or contact Ed Hopfner, 415-614-5547, hopfnere@sfarch.org.

October Mass Count:

Throughout the month of October we will be conducting our annual October Mass Count. This is the time of year where we count our parishioners (men, women and children) as a means of measuring the attendance in the parishes from year to year. These statistics are used for reporting to the various offices in Rome and others. Some funding and help is based on these statistics so we hope you will make yourself counted! The results will be reported in November.

Encuentro Matrimonial Mundial en el de Semana:

El Encuentro Matrimonial en el fin de semana es un tiempo especial para un matrimonio lejos de todas las distracciones: el trabajo, los niños, las cuentas y otras presiones e intereses. Se lleva a cabo en un hotel local o facilidad, en donde se dan presentaciones en el cuarto de conferencias, y los matrimonios usualmente se quedan en un hotel o facilidad el fin de semana completo. (Algunos fines de semana se viaja en el ferrocarril) El próximo fin de semana local tendrá lugar del 11-13 de Noviembre en Menlo Park. Durante el fin de semana, habrá una serie de presentaciones por el Grupo Presentador, que consiste de tres matrimonios y un sacerdote. Cada presentación construye sobre el último, como participantes se examinan su comportamiento y actitudes, así como su relación con su esposo(a) y con Dios. Las herramientas de comunicación se enseñan a las parejas a obrar recíprocamente de maneras saludables, constructivas en áreas que pueden mejorar su intimidad y sus conexiones. Todo el compartimiento entre esposos es privado; Este no es un fin de semana para resolver problemas. El fin de semana les ayudará a las parejas a mejorar su matrimonio y a comunicarse mucho mejor. Para más información y formas de inscripción vea el sitio de la red. La Oficina Arquidiocesana de Matrimonio y Vida de Familia, le ayuda en su matrimonio, a parejas casadas con muchos otros recursos.
